

December 1942

Writer, Editor, Patriot, Soldier

Rod edited his high school newspaper and wrote passionate editorials on subjects ranging from buying war bonds to defeating the neighboring school's football team to defeating the Nazis. By the time he graduated in January 1943, he was already enlisted in the U.S. Army as a paratrooper. You can view more issues of the Panorama at www.rodserling.com.

The Rod Serling Calendar for DECEMBER 2000

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
					1 The Dear Departed (1971)	2
3	4	5	6	7 Knife in the Dark (Danger 1954)	8	9
10	11	12 O'Toole from Moscow (Matinee 1955)	13 Doomsday Flight (P120 1966)	14	15 At Ease (Motorola 1953)	16
17 The Last Night of August (Pursuit 1958)	18	19 Twenty-four Men to a Plane (Medallion 1953)	20 It's Mental Work (HOPE 1963) EMMY	21	22	23
24	25 Rod Serling is born in Syracuse, NY 1924 The Happy Headline (Campbell 1952)	26 They Call Them the Meek (MT 1953)	27	28 A Carol For Another Christmas (U.N. Special 1964)	29	30
31						