

Rod Serling Stamp

The United States Postal Service (USPS) has missed several opportunities to create a stamp celebrating Rod Serling's contribution to American Culture. As a major figure in early television drama and creator of The Twilight Zone, he is certainly deserving of the honor. The Rod Serling Memorial Foundation has promoted such a stamp since 1988, but fans of Rod and his work must help the USPS do the right thing.

You can help in one (or all!) of these ways:

1. Sign an online petition.
2. Send an email to the USPS.
3. Send a paper letter to the USPS.
4. Tell all your fellow Rod Serling fans to do the same.

Read more about the stamp cause, and find links to petitions and to the USPS at www.rodserling.com.
