

“What on Earth”

Opening narration:

Her name is MOTHER II. Aptly named space vessel birthing hope to earthlings who vow to leave behind hostilities and shape themselves into a harmonious moon community.

For within her massive hull are hundreds of passengers from all ancestries and every necessity imaginable.

Imaginable, save these seemingly unimportant items of: Gravity and a past.

MOTHER II is not equipped with a rearview mirror; therefore we offer one small advisory:

Imaginable becomes fact in ... THE TWILIGHT ZONE.

Closing narration:

Today the GALACTIC SPACE ASSEMBLY delivered this unforeseen announcement:

“Mother II and all her passengers will return to earth.

Man never imagined the alienating pain of seeing, but not feeling the earth. And gravity is a gift overlooked.

Disagreements at home must be remedied at home”.

Prophetic words perhaps: “We must all return to Mother Earth”.

Tonight’s epitaph of Ashes To Ashes, Dust To Dust, Earth To Earth from ... THE TWILIGHT ZONE.
