Opening Narrative

It is said... “Love is like the wind, you can't see it, but you can feel it.” Case in point, Miss Jessica Wilson. 33, attractive, successful and single. A woman who seems to have been standing on the wrong side of the tracks of love and marriage. It's Christmas Eve, and Jessica Wilson has been invited to a singles cruise to Europe. Jessica Wilson hopes true love and marriage will set sail with her. Amongst the countless bathing suits and ‘come hither’ attire, Jessica Wilson has also packed a much-needed love potion for her voyage.

Closing Narrative

Whether Jessica Wilson likes it or not, she has found love and marriage on her voyage, enough to last her a lifetime.

Jessica Wilson thought a potion in a bottle would make her dreams of love and marriage come true. Love has found Jessica, and it will chase her all through The boundaries of Twilight Zone.
