

“A Different Kind of School”

copyright 2018 by Dana Bookbinder

Opening narration:

Introducing Artie Koestler, who at first blush appears to be just another typical 8-year-old kid from any town, anywhere. However, Artie grew up with some extraordinary teachers in no ordinary school. Here, in an Act of Creation, was taught his ABCs. And, as you'll soon find out, you may have learned more than expected, when you've been schooled...in The Twilight Zone.

Closing narration:

Artie learned his ABCs in a different kind of school. This sparked one of the most powerful forces in the universe...the human imagination. And in turn, gave him the Guide to Science in Chronicling Mars before his Childhood's End. For as we just learned, these ABCs are Asimov, Bradbury, Clarke and Serling, [pause] all players...in The Twilight Zone.
