Opening Narration

You have just witnessed a rather unusual shopping experience in the local Supermarket grocery chain involving one Frank Lanni. Mr. Lanni is searching special deals not just from loyalty programs or promotions in flyers; but deals found only in The Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration

Bo Derek is quoted as saying: “Whoever said money can’t buy happiness simply didn’t know where to go shopping”. The next time Frank Lanni goes shopping, he would be wise to read the fine print on his register receipt for the return policy, and ensure his purchase came from a retailer and that it was not sent... from the Twilight Zone.
