

“Twists and Turns”

copyright 2019 by Victor Ellsworth

Opening Narration

Meet Charles Rushton VI, best known under his professional pseudonym "Chase Rush Hour", living a charmed life on wheels whether it's dirt or asphalt fortified with adrenaline winning meets in all 50 states and around the world, but the next rush of adrenaline as he prepares for a Grand Prix located in The Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration

A champion taken away from us too soon because of way too much rush that finally caught up with him for a price is extremely steep for him to pay but the cost of accolades and his life, with a granite stone reading "Rest in Peace Chase Rush Hour" not realizing that the flag bearer waving the red flag to stop because the track you're racing on is in The Twilight Zone.