

“Hindsight”

© 2020 by Dana Bookbinder

Opening Narration:

Introducing Mr. Michael Romac, who just opened a treasure chest. In it, the faded letters and photos of 30 years ago by grandparents and parents he almost never met. A world of riches and poverty, of acrid skies and land devoid of life. Then the virus...the pandemic...and The Year The Earth Stood Still.

And, as we'll soon learn...of an unexpected path his elders took...somewhere...in The Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration:

Witness that Mr. Romac's peers never got off the train. Feeling above Nature...not part of it. An unfortunate break or selfish choice?

They say that “Hindsight is 2020”. It's also the year Mr. Michael Romac was born. So the next time you see the Romacs...remember they traveled another road...in The Twilight Zone.
