Opening Narration

Leaving coins on a headstone is a sacred act of remembrance and respect! Back in the day for Billy D. Parker, it was all in a day's work to scour the money out of graveyards to buy comic books and bubble gum.

And now, even after decades of bottom feeding, Billy is back to the iron gates again like some moth pinned to a board of some insect collection. It's like he never left. But now on the menu for Billy is Education Day, as his best laid plans did not figure on a headstone set at the cusp of the Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration

We've all heard of pennies from Heaven, and as we have just witnessed, the unexpected Billy D. Parker disappearance in a gravesite that takes back with interest...down a sinkhole to a special kind of vault in the Twilight Zone.
