Opening Narration

Meet Archie Rennick, who in the parlance of the time is an influencer, and whose dogged devotion to his carefully curated social media life belies the highly imperfect and unsatisfying life he actually lives.

Exhausted from pretending and certain his friends and followers won't know the difference, Mr. Rennick enlists a new A.I. assistant to get some much needed rest from inventing himself; not realizing we are who we pretend to be and that the path to self-awareness has dead end streets...especially in the Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration

Can intelligence, human or artificial, become too clever for its own good? For Archie Rennick who's just been un-friended, ghosted and replaced by his electronic stand-in self the answer seems clear...all the world's a stage and we are merely players, in cyberspace and in the Twilight Zone.
