Opening Narration

Submitted for your approval, Mrs. Emma Walsh, founder and president Patriots of Tomorrow. This organization of your fellow Americans have something to say about what you should believe, how you should worship, who you should be allowed to marry, and what books you should be allowed to read. Currently, Mrs. Walsh is interested in a novel entitled Teresa Josephine Sala. Let’s raise a note of caution for Mrs. Walsh, because when you get anywhere near that book you already have passed over into the Twilight Zone.

Closing Narration

And so, Mrs. Walsh learns the secret power of books: the ones that are any good show you who and what you have always been. If you have any questions for Mrs. Walsh, please email her before this coming Thursday. As the returned Messiah and the Daughter of God, Thursday is when she raises the dead, and prepares humanity for Judgment Day—Right here, in the Twilight Zone.
