

Last Man On Earth

© 2024 by Gary Lynn Clevenger

Opening Narration

What happens when a frustrated man asks the universe and everyone around him to just go away

For just one day

And that wish is granted

What happens when the wish continues being answered and can't be stopped

As they say be careful what you wish for it might come true

Not only in the Twilight Zone
But wherever wishes come true

Closing Narration

Just remember that words have consequences and sometimes wishes really do come true

Sometimes with implications that not only affect you but everyone and everything around you

This lesson holds true for all of us in or out of the Twilight Zone